ST. CHARLES CYO PHILOSOPHY

Our vision for St. Charles CYO is to develop a program that is fair and just to the youth, that teaches good Christian values, builds skills, develops the kids as athletes, and builds self-esteem.

St. Charles CYO provides for the development of young people's spiritual, emotional, intellectual, social, and physical potential. Based on Catholic values, CYO offers guidance to assist young people as they assume responsibility for themselves and for their relationship with their family, peers, and community. The CYO program strives to meet the diverse needs of all our youth.

The CYO program at St. Charles honors a recreational and competitive philosophy. The responsibility for integrating these two aspects of our program is accomplished through the efforts of the coach. The coach is to serve the team with a Youth Ministry Philosophy; more than being a sports technician, the coach is an important role model for young people. In that capacity and above everything else, coaches in the CYO program strive to exemplify attitudes and behaviors of a committed Christian adult.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Parents/guardians are encouraged to communicate directly with the appropriate coach in the event of a grievance. If no resolution is achieved, communication of the grievance will be made to the CYO Advisory Board through either of our Co-Athletic Directors, Michael O'Meara & Tony Bell. Email both co-directors in the same message. Their email addresses are: thestcad@gmail.com and tbell20@rochester.rr.com.
